

Health and Safety Policy

It is the policy of Indium Corporation to require adherence to safety precautions and procedures. At Indium Corporation this is a required condition of employment.

Efforts to prevent accidents and injuries are, and shall be, integrated into our work environment and operating procedures. Indium Corporation complies with applicable occupational safety and health regulations.

Brian J. Reid

Vice President, Operations